Planned Giving Advisory Council

Make a difference: Become an advocate for Cook Children's Health Care System.

Use your voice to educate clients, colleagues and friends about our vital advancements, programs and priorities.

Our purpose

The Planned Giving Advisory Council is a vast network of financial professionals advocating for Cook Children's Health Foundation and their Promise to do everything for the child.

Our membership represents a well-respected group of local professionals, including attorneys, certified public accountants, investment advisors and certified financial planners, who partner in establishing major and planned gifts for Cook Children's.

We have two simple goals:

- First, to provide clients with information about leaving a lasting impact on the health and well-being of the children in our community through a gift to Cook Children's
- Second, to collaborate and network with like-minded peers in the estate planning and financial services industry

In working with your clients on their financial and estate plan, Cook Children's Health Foundation provides opportunities to enhance their personal as well as charitable interests.

As an added benefit, we happily recommend council members to our grateful patient families and friends interested in including charitable giving into their financial and estate plans.

Partner with us!

Your involvement makes a significant impact for patients. Cook Children's combines the art of caring with leading technology and extraordinary collaboration to provide exceptional care for every child. Help us create a lasting legacy for their future by joining the Planned Giving Advisory Council.

Membership benefits:

- Networking events throughout the year, including educational socials with Cook Children's administrators and physicians to strengthen your understanding of the need for philanthropic support
- Opportunities to present to our Turner-Cook Society members and prospects
- Foundation publications featuring charitable giving, tax information services and other strategic initiatives to keep you and your clients informed
- The support of a dedicated fundraising team, ready to assist you and your clients by providing personalized planned giving illustrations
